HORSA CASE IN REVILW WATERLOO FOR VIRGINIA

Alleged Filibuster Case.

Shows That the Intent of the Men Who Went to Cuba Made the Expedition Military-Case Laid Before the Supreme Court-Cases of John Brown and Samson Cited.

The government brief in the Horsa filiistering case before the supreme court ras filed resterday. It is signed by Attorney General Harmon. olicitor General Conrad and Assistant Atorney General Whitney. The main questions discussed in the brief are whether the steamer was engaged in an unlawful 'military expedition or enterprise' with-in the meaning of the statute, and whether Capt. Wiborg and the mates who have been avicted, knew the unlawful character of the enterprise before they sailed from

The government contends that there is no question of international law involved and that the case turns aimply upon the meaning of the words weed in the statute. The party of fibrusters started from New York in a tog, were transferred at night in the lower bay to a steam lighter, which was loaded with arms and ammuultion and one cannon, and traveled in he lighter to a point in the ocean off

They left the Horsa at night in small boats, the vessel's lights having been put out, and carried the cannon and other arms and most of the ammunition with them. They were in charge of a colored pilot and were on their way to join the Cuban insurgents, but it was not proved that they were organized into a regular to a point about six miles off the coast of China. They were in charge of a colored pilot and were on their way to join the Cultan insurgents, but it was not proved that they were organized into a regular military company.

Judge Batter charged the jury that such ploof was not mesessary. Judge Brown afterward charged a New York jury in the case of the Bermuda faithusters, that the case of the Bermuda faithusters, that These came in a six-herse float and carried conspicuously their black and garnet for an expedition was not "unlitary" unless it was a regular organized force-cavairy, infantry, or artiflery

SAMSON'S CASE CITED.

The government maintains, on the con-trary, that whether or not an enterprise is military, is a question of menty-price is military, is a question of ment, not dependent on regular military organization, citing the cases of John Brown, who captured Harper's Perry with twenty men, and Samson, who killed 1,000 men with the jawbone of an ass.

The brief gives the history of the neutrality statute. It was first adopted in 1794, at the request of Washington and Jefferson, to prevent the United States from being embroded in the wars of the French revolution.

Jefferson said. 'Ne citizen has a right to go to war of his own authority, and for what he does without right he ought to be punished.'

Monroe said of the South American wars Monroe soil of the South American wars of independence that our people could not "beloid a conflict so vitally important to their neighbor without the sensibility and sympathy which naturally belong to such a cause," but that "it is of the highest importance to our tational character and indispensable to the morality of our citizens that all violations of our neutrality should be prevented. No door should be left open for the exasion of our laws."
The brief says.

Government Files Brief in the Georgetown Is Now Champion of the South.

MONROE POLICY VIOLATED MAHONEY WAS INVINCIBLE

Tale of Nine Goose Eggs-Blue and Gray Played Almost Without Error. Visitors Only Made One Hit, But Played Well in the Field-Reardon's Brilliant Work,

"What will your Alma Mater say,
On, Virgona, 'Ginna, 'Ginna, 'Ginna,' What war your Arma Mater say, Oh, me! 'On, my!"
Georgetown, 7; Virginia, 0.
As a litting finale to a most successful season, Georgetown 'Varsaty finished its none series year-may afternoon on Georgetown Frent with a Lithiant victory over me much-heraisen and really strong University of Virginia muc by a score of 7 to 0.
It seeds is most segant victory in this.

It scores as most signar victory in this, its last game, and the visitors supered most its as game, and the visitors suffered more ignormations actent in a well applied coat of whitewash. The intubbing or raday administration to it by the same team what a socie of $1 to $11$ was as nothing to compare with a crear stational for fine thirmings, it was snappy throughout and tristing and at was suspey throughout and bristing and of sharp, brilliant briding and foncy batting. For Georgetown but one error was most, which is a particular and the error was most, which is a particular and the property is terially active? Fraction nor brown, nor butting mind, could have hoped to lare taken a game from the tipe and gray.

Georgetown starts on its Northern four May 24, and if it puts op such bad as it did yesterday it will certainly who a majority of the games. It is now the champon of the south, and far and away the leader of a majority of the leading college teams.

flog.

It was a gala scene and one long to be remembered. Added to the color, masselent its charms, and again the local give club was in evidence, and its good inforce songs and salles, alored by Charles Greene and the big atmosmer's field trampet added to the general enthusiasm and merginnest.

ROYAL PITCHERS' BATTLE ROYAL PITCHERS' BATTLE.

Virginia saved her strongest pitcher for boday, and Mecource, who has a great record, was put in the points and for the most part partial strong, seems game, and had excepted support. But the surfield no terrors for two gettewn's cycledic inters. They had him anness at will, and in the soxta mining amoss knocked him out of the box. The relations from annessed with these times.

work was irrequency apparatuser. Uring at more accepted an his live chances without in error.

• here the whole of the blue and gray team payed amost without an error is a different to norminot the service excelled. But to occupe ham need, the sing of an endage pitchers, must be given a large small of the trend of presenting your To Virginia specialities as was alleinguing out one hit being assured of, his dealers, and this tens the story of Virginia successfully and the story of Virginia successfully and the story of Virginia successfully was simply dividended, and his fire an interest book in any onice testing for at next two years. He is a purzier to all batters.

In control, he nessed as post well, accepting all of his faree chances without manner.

The third game will not be played and corgetown will, fortunately, but have correctows will, fortunately, but have a travel to the State, whose slogan is TALE OF NINE GOOSE EGGS.

Promptly at a tricket Uniper Reydler gave the signal for the struggle to regin and when it stopped it was safely in councy's hards. The min gerrock out and Act arthy's liner was becarting stopped by McKing, but it reached hist too ore to caten the runner.

Annoucy's single advanced McCarthy, out both were left standing on Lamberts soul riy thach is cited a great error by Marshall. No runs.

The second mining was also a blank for Georgeown and it was just the kind of medicine Virginia took for line long limitings.

of medicine Virginia took for nine long innings.
Georgetown scored twice in the third. Harriey was fatry in by the pitcher, but the minine women messer it that way, and Dick is thus accussed of a trick he was never guilty of. There was good cause for the kies on the impiring, because before this he was awtinn linid on Mahoney, nariey was out from McKim to Garney, Fremong tangent saciety on ins hit to saon, and immediately after scored on McCarthy is home run over right freed. Mahoney fabed to connect, Lambert walked, and McLaughlin insed one out past third, Reardon filed out the McKim.

and immediately after scored on McCarthy's home run over right field. Mahoney fished to connect, Lambert walked, and McLaughin lined one out past third, Reardon flied out to Hoxton.

In their hair, the sixth Virginian struck out, or the nine to bat to that time.

The locals bianked in the fourth and added three runs in the fifth, Fleming was thrown out at first by McKun, Mahoney lined one to Hoxton, butti was too hot for that great piayer, and the batter was safe, but was forced at second on Lamber's hit to Craig.

McLaughin, who is hitting the bail for keeps, lined one to the roadway, and reached third, scoring McCarthy and Lambert. Reardon followed his good example and tapped McLaughin, Lamb hit to short and forced Reardon. Three runs.

After Bonney, for Virginia, had sent a fly to McCarthy, which was taken in in great shape, McKim and Cochran both iapped scratches to Mahoney, who heiped to burry them at first.

In the sixth "Pap" McGuire was feeling the contests of the con but the cha was not yet, not the chas carned two more runs.

LITTLE MALONEY'S TWO-BAGGER.

The doughty little Georgetown catcher was due for a bit and he pounded out a splendid two-bagger, and scored on Harley's three-slecker to right field, who scored on Kern's nuff of Mahoney's high fly to center. Fleming, McCarthy and Lambert were easy outs on files. Two runs. In the seventh Marshall was given a pass and is only the second Virginian who has reached first, and he gets to thrid on Hoxton's drive to deep center, but gets no further, for McGuire and McKim are easy outs and caused great excitement. Bonney struck out and the agony and suspense is over for that inning.

In the eighth the visitors were retired on three balls pitched.

Georgetown was blanked after the sixth inning, but it had clinched the game and was on easy street.

As Mahoney stepped into the box in the ninth he was presented with a magnificent wreath of laurel, tied with streamers of blue and gray, the gift of fair admirers. He presented Garnett with his base, bothe was doubled at second, where he stood asleep, after McCarthy had taken in Marshall's long fly, then McGuire fanned out, and the greatest game of the season was over; and then pandemonium let loose and enthusiasm never pent up, now rolled in sheets over the big field. And amid all the excitement flig Mahoney, the pride of all Georgetown, was carried off the field on the shoulders of players and rooters.
